

Spring Incentive Program

A Series of Short, Informal Recitals
Saturday, May 19 & Sunday, May 20 – Recitals from 9:30AM-5PM
Encore Recitals: Sunday, June 3 from 1:30PM-5PM
Greenwich House Music School - 46 Barrow St., New York, NY 10014

The Spring Incentive Program is a series of short recitals with an encouraging and supportive atmosphere. Students of all ages and levels are welcome to apply. Teachers may register students with the option of performance evaluations by a panel of adjudicators. Comments will be sent to the teachers of all those requesting evaluated performances. Recitals are open to the public and we encourage audiences to attend and support our young performers. The adjudicators will then choose a select number of students to showcase at our celebratory Encore Recital.

Recital scheduling for the preferred performance day will be determined by consideration of program balance and with regard to repertoire, level and age. Program Chairs make every reasonable effort to schedule recitals to enable teacher attendance, but it may not be possible to grant every request. They reserve the right to make the final determination of the performance schedule.

Eligibility and Guidelines:

- Students of all ages & levels – early grades to most advanced.
- Minimum requirement is ability/readiness to perform.

Repertoire:

- Original piano music of any period, including original compositions & ensembles (four-hands, two-piano, concerto - teacher accompaniment permitted).
- Simplifications, arrangements and transcriptions are not allowed.
- All compositions must be memorized and performance-ready.
- Performers opting for evaluations must present the published or downloaded sheet music, not photocopies, to the adjudicators.

Performer's Fee:

- $30 for up to 3 minutes
- $40 for up to 6 minutes
- $50 for up to 10 minutes
- $55 for up to 12 minutes

Checks are payable to Piano Teachers Congress of New York – Please mail application form and performer's fee to:
